Form 990, Part III, Line 4a - Program Service Accomplishments

The ID Kits program in Burundi is a signature program for African Road which resulted in 1,300 Batwa Indigenous people gaining the full benefits of citizenship. Although it is not our organization's mission to offer relief and aid, in response to the ongoing pandemic and in line with the relational nature of the partnership, it was natural to provide support (food and essential services) to our partners and their communities in Tanzania, Rwanda, Uganda and Burundi during the Covid lockdown. Additionally, African Road's focus included project expansion and scale for another signature program 'VICOBA Business & Community Savings Training' which had the impact of training new facilitators, plus a community based process to draft, update and revise a facilitators' training manual for the benefit of partner communities and women's sustainability groups across East Africa. In Rwanda, the Togetherness and House of Bright Hope Projects include strategic planning for a community center and a soccer project for sustainability, conflict prevention and girls' empowerment. Other areas of emphasis are: community focus groups, early childhood education teacher training, small business support and land for sustainability. In Tanzania: small business coaching and capacity building. Burundi: capacity building and equipping of indigenous Batwa leaders, education, leadership training and funding for small business growth to support the sustainability of the families of these indigenous leaders.
